Nothing's Impossible: Leadership Lessons from Inside and Outside the Classroom
by Lorraine Monroe

In the Fall of 1991, a magical seed was planted in the heart of New York's Harlem. It was the Frederick Douglass Academy, a public school that promised inner-city students a quality education comparable to that offered in an elite suburban school. Founded and led by Dr. Lorraine Monroe, an already fabled educator, and staffed by a team of deeply dedicated teachers, the academy set out to prove that caring instructors, an atmosphere of disciplined creativity, and a refusal to accept mediocrity can transform the lives of inner-city kids. Six years later, members of the first graduating class are on their way to Ivy League colleges, and students in the lower grades continue to set records for academic excellence. The key to the success of the Frederick Douglass Academy is leadership - especially the unique brand of tough yet compassionate, practical, charismatic leadership pioneered by the principal, Lorraine Monroe. List Price - $13.95; Offer valid 3/1/08 – 4/14/08. Purchase online at www.neamb.com/bn . Discount will be applied at checkout.
